COUNTY TEACHERS WILL PUT FORTH THEIR BEST EFFORTS

"Speed Up and Yet Be Thorough" Is Keynote of Superintendent Turnip-seed's Message to Mason County Teachers—Part of Lost Time Will Be Made Up

All of the teachers in Mason county schools both white and black were called for a conference today at the Court House by Superintendent Geo.
H. Turnipseed. The county schools will be re-opened on next Monday and Superintendent Turnipseed wanted to talk with the teachers before they began their work which has been suspended since the influenza epidemic became so bad during October.

The white teachers met in the morning and the colored teachers in the afternoon. Prof. Turnipseed gave to the teachers a set of rules they are expected to follow in an effort to keep down influenza among the school children. These rules were drawn up by County Health Officer Locke and were published in the Ledger several weeks ago.

The matter of making up lost time was also brought up and Prof. Turnipseed urged upon the teachers there to get down to intensive work and spend the most of their time on the funda-mentals so that the students would not lose the entire year's work.

Some of the teachers have already volunteered to teach a night school for those students who are not able to keep up with the rapid movement the schools will have from now until the school year closes. They are making great sacrifice in this offer but many of the teachers are so much interested in seeing the children in their neighborhood make up all of the lost time that they have expressed a willingness to make this sacrifice.

WATCH MEETING

There will be a watch meeting at the Forest Avenue M. E. Church New Year's Eve. Services will be in the

WHERE DO YOUNGSTERS GET THEIR BOOZE HERE?

Young Boys on the Streets of Maysville Under the Influence of Liquor Cause Police to Get Busy in Running Down the Blind Tigers.

From all indications on the streets of Maysville during the past several days there must be in operation in or near Maysville a blind tiger or a number of bootleggers who have no respect for the minor law and the police have begun a careful investigation to learn where the young boys under 21 years of age are getting their supply of liquor.

Last night, it is reported that there were several youngsters on the street under the influence of liquor and some of them became very abusive in their language to older persons.

Yesterday afternoon in broad daylight a boy appearing to be not more than 16 years of age was seen drunk on Market street and when asked by a citizen where he got his liquor he replied from his hip pocket and immediately pulled back his coat and displayed a bottle of liquor.

The police have had the bootlegging in Maysville pretty well cleaned out but it appears that there are still deals in liquor in operation and that they are now selling to boys. Police are busy on the job and expect to unearth something within a short time.

A CHANGE IN FORTUNE

A Maysville gentleman met Mr. Woodrow Wilson (then Prof. Wilson of Princeton) in London in 1896. His presence in England at that time was probably not known to a dozen people. Now he returns to London the most noted man of the world, the honored companion of Kings and Princes and the idol of the English populace. What a marvelous change in fortune.

WANTS TO LOCATE NEAR MAYS- VILLE

Even farmers are looking for suitable locations in live communities.
County Agent George Kirk today received communication from a farmer in Arkansas desiring to locate near Maysville to operate a dairy and chicken farm.

COUSIN OF LOCAL PASTOR IS KILLED ON FRENCH FIELD

Lieut. Colonel James Dickey, Native of Greenup, Ky., and Cousin of Dr. J.
A. Dickey, of This City, Makes the Supreme Sacrifice.

Dr. J. J. Dickey, pastor of the East Second Street M. E. Church, South-ber of bootleggers who have no respect for the minor law and the police
learn where the young boys under 21
years of age are getting their supply
of liquor.

The Portsmouth (O.) Times of December 14th says: Government officials in Washington have confirmed the death of Lieut. Colonel James Dickey, who died in France from wounds received in battle on September 27th. His body lies buried in the shell-torn fields of Flanders, where thousands of the heroic dead sleep.

O. H. Dickey received word from Washington today confirming the death of his son. It was a terrible blow to Mr. and Mrs. Dickey and they are heart broken over the loss of their son, who had a brilliant military career before him. They are comforted in the thought that their son saw his duty and performed it. He died defending his flag. No greater honor could befall so gallant a soldier as Lieut. Colonel Dickey. He died as he had wished in the defense of the honor of his country.

Lieut. Colonel Dickey was genial and companionable at all times. He was the essence of courtesy and possessed those enviable attributes that assert one's affability and true friendship. It was an inscrutable act of Providence to take so shining a mark from the military ranks, but God so willed and relatives and friends must temper their grief by the thought that the young hero fell in battle.

Lieut. Colonel James Hoop Dickey was born in Greenup, Ky., April 19, 1883. He was appointed to West Point by Congressman Samuel Pugh of Vanceburg and graduated from that institution in 1905. In 1906 he graduated from the School of Equitation at Fort Riley. He was then sent to the Philippines where he remained two years. Upon his return he spent some time at Fort Mead and Fort Bliss. He was again sent to the Philippines and remained there two years on his second visit.

Upon his return he was sent to the border with General Pershing and had his headquarters at Ft. Bliss.

He was later sent from there to Washington, where he located 20 months being sent there to do special work in the Ordnance Department. It was through his untiring work there that he was promoted from a major.
He left last April for overseas and had taken part in many encounters with the enemy.

BATES MAKES SECOND ESCAPE FROM OFFICERS

Crazed Slayer Found in Virginia Jumps From Train at Winchester.

Winchester, Ky., December 27.—WILliam Jennings Bates jumped from a fast Louisville and Nashville train near this city today while handcuffed and made his escape.

He was being taken to Longview Asylum, Cincinnati. Bates escaped from the asylum several weeks ago and made his way into Virginia, where he was apprehended.

He is still at large.
William Jennings Bates escaped from a "strong ward" at Longview the morning of December 15 when two guards, who had kept an unceasing watch on him, left him alone in the ward. He used a mop handle to break a window screen.

Bates killed his brother-in-law, Ralph Trotter, Norton, Va., May 18, 1918, when on a Louisville and Nashville train at Covington, Ky. A jury in Kenton (Ky.) Circuit Court adjudged him to be of unsound mind and ordered him committed to Longview.

He is the son of John W. Bates, salesman, Lenox Building, Oakley, Ohio. He is 21 years old. Young Bates owns approximately $16,000 worth of timber lands in Letcher county, Ky.

JUDGE HAGER DEAD

Owensboro, Ky., December 28 — Judge S. William Hager, Chairman of the Kentucky's Workmen's Compensation Commission and publisher of an Owensboro newspaper died last night in his home in this city.

He had been ill for several months.
Judge Hager had served as State Treasurer and State Auditor and was the Democratic nominee for Governor in 1908, being defeated by Augustus E.
Wilson, his Republican opponent.

MEMORIAL COMMITTEE WILL SOON MEET

The special committee named by Mayor Thomas M. Russell to erect some sort of memorial to the boys from Mason county who fought in the great war will soon hold a meeting with a similar committee named by the Chamber of Commerce and by the County Fiscal Court. This committee will have quite a job on its hands to decide on just what form a memorial for the soldiers should take.

TRIP FOR CATTLE WILL SOON BE MADE

Now that the Christmas rush is over the farmers who had planned to make a trip to Michigan to purchase pure bred Holstein cattle, will begin again to make preparations for that trip. Because of the trip being delayed, it is expected that more than had planned to go originally will avail themselves of this opportunity of seeing some of the best cattle in the land.

WILL RE-OPEN EAST END BARBER SHOP

The Fifth ward barber shop at the corner of East Second street and Commerce streets has been rented by Mr.
Leonard Wallingford, who will open the shop in the very near future. This barber shop was at one time one of the most popular stands in the city but it has been closed for several months.

TO BE BURIED AT OLIVET

The body of Frank Pollitt, who died at his home at Middlesboro, Ky., on last Thursday, arrived here this morning and was taken to the Olivet cemetery near Reelfoot where burial was made this morning. Besides his wife, several children survive Mr.
Pollitt.

AGED WOMAN SLAIN BY BOARDER, WHO USES AX HANDLE

Young Maryland Murderer Tells Calamity How He Killed Woman Who Placed Drug in His Tea.

Rockville, Md., December 27.—Ralph Bowling, 18 years old, stood in the office of State's Attorney Alfred M.
Yonke today and told, without a trace of emotion, how he had killed Mrs.
Elizabeth Beckwith, 68 years old, in her cottage at Coleville, this county.
He and the elderly woman, who was a widow, had been the sole occupants of the house for a year.

Bowling said that Mrs. Beckwith had been saying to him recently that he could not continue to live there unless he married her; had pleaded with him to marry her, and had said that she did not want to live without him.

"I hit her on the head with an axhandle," Bowling said. "We were sitting in the house talking. I had told her in reply to her pleas that I marry her, that I didn't want to marry a woman 68 years old. She had put loline in my tea. It made me so sick I had to go to a doctor.

"When she said that she didn't want to live without me, I got to thinking that she had tried to kill me and that she said that she wanted to die; so I picked up this ax-handle and struck her with it as hard as I could. Then I didn't want to see her suffer, so I struck her again. She didn't live long after the second blow, only a minute or two. I dragged her body from the front room where I had killed her to a back room and left the house. I took $5, all the money that was in the house, with me."

LARGER ATTENDANCE AT CITY SCHOOLS EXPECTED

When the city schools are opened on next Monday the Truant Officer will again be on the job as Superintendent Caplinger has announced that beginning with Monday the compulsory attendance law will be enforced. For the past several weeks children have not been required to attend school as the parents of some were afraid of the influenza. Beginning Monday, however, every child will be expected to be in his or her place.

PROF. CHAPMAN HERE TO STUDY OUR SCHOOL SYSTEM

State Supervisor of Rural Schools Is Appointed by Government to Make Report on Consolidated Schools —Mason County Is Pioneer County.

Prof. J. Virgil Chapman, State Supervisor of Rural Schools of the state of Kentucky, is in Maysville today to secure data on the several consolidated schools in Mason county for a report which he will make to the United States Department of Education on School Consolidation.

Prof. Chapman was named with three other prominent educators of the nation some time ago by the Commissioner of Education to prepare this report and today he stated that of course he would have to come to Mason county before he could report on the state of Kentucky as this county is the pioneer of the state in consolidation.

Mason county has more consolidated schools than any other county in the state of Kentucky and no county in the state has a better system of education than our own county.

Prof. Chapman is not a stranger in Mason county having been here on various occasions and having at various times visited all of the consolidated schools in the county. His report on Kentucky will be mostly a report on the Mason county schools.
This report will be published and widely circulated so that Mason county will get much advertisement in every state in the union through our county school system.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

Cattle Buying for Swift & Company

Swift & Company buys more than 9000 head of cattle, on an average, every market day.

Each one of them is "sized up" by experts.

Both the packer's buyer and the commission salesman must judge what amount of meat each animal will yield, and how fine it will be, the grading of the hide, and the quantity and quality of the fat.

Both must know market conditions for live stock and meat throughout the country. The buyer must know where the different qualities, weights, and kinds of cattle can be best marketed as beef.

If the buyer pays more than the animal is worth, the packer loses money on it. If he offers less, another packer, or a shipper or feeder, gets it away from him.

If the seller accepts too little, the live-stock raiser gets less than he is entitled to. If he holds out for more than it is worth, he fails to make a sale.

A variation of a few cents in the price per hundred pounds is a matter of vital importance to the packer, because it means the difference between profit and loss.

DAILY LESSONS ON GARDEN MAKING ARE FREE TO YOU

The war against hunger has just started and it will be a hard fight to conquer this enemy, says a bulletin today from the National War Garden Commission of Washington. We had 5,285,000 war gardens in the United States. Let us have 10,000,000 "victory gardens" in 1919 and help to feed the hungry millions of the world.

Now is the time to start. Just a little seed box planted now with cabbage, collard, cauliflower, Brussels sprouts, celery, eggplant, tomato or lettuce seed, is the way to get started for the early spring garden, says the bulletin. Every reader of this paper should get a free copy of the garden instruction book by writing to the Commission in Washington, enclosing a two cent stamp for postage.

About 6 or 7 weeks before the plants may be transplanted to the garden is the time to start the seed box. A shallow box 3 or 4 inches high, 10 or 12 inches wide, and 18 to 24 inches long is a convenient size to handle. Fill the box with rich garden earth or with sandy loam mixed with decayed manure. Press down the earth with a short piece of board, make rows 1 1/2 inch deep, 2 inches apart crosswise of the box and plant 6 or 8 seeds to the inch of row. Cover up the seeds and firm the ground again with the board. Water carefully so it does not run through and lay a piece of paper or cloth over the ground to keep in the moisture. As soon as the seeds sprout which will be in three or four days, take off the paper or cloth. Water as needed to keep the plants growing. Set the box in the house by a window in the sunshine or if the weather is cold set it out of doors in a protected place in the sun.

When the plants are about an inch high thin out the surplus ones so those left are two inches apart. If you can use these thinned out plants just make boxes of the same kind, fill them with rich earth, and set the plants 2 inches apart in each direction. This will give them room to grow into stocky plants by the time the garden is ready for them.

In mild weather keep the boxes out.

deers so the plants will "harden," that is become accustomed to outdoor temperature so they will not be chilled and stunted when they are set in the garden.

WHEN IS A DEVIL NOT A DEVIL?

Monroe Salisbury is a devil, and yet he is not. He is good and he is evil. And this curious mingling of virtue and vice in the make-up of Monroe Salisbury as "Battise" Latour in that Blue Bird production "That Devil Batease" makes the photoplay stand out as a Jakes and Hyde epic of the Canadian woods. Pastime Monday, December 30.

VOTERS SUSTAIN LLOYD GEORGE

London, December 28 — First announcement of the results of the parliamentary elections of December 14, made public today, showed a victory for the coalitionists, supporters of the Lloyd George government.

Morris, Coalition candidate for the House of Commons, won over Mrs. Despart, labor candidate, 7231 to 5834.

OCCUPATION IS FAVORED

Berlin, December 28—Allied occupation of northern Germany to restore order was discussed generally today.

Most of the civilians and German soldiers with whom the correspondent talked openly favored such a move. They said they would welcome American and British troops, but not the French.

OPERATED MANY HUTS

When the German armies cried, "Enough!" and the Kaiser fled to Holland the American Y. M. C. A. had under its charge in the war zone 1,900 huts, tents and buildings of various kinds.

This tremendous total, erected as an essential factor of a new theory of winning wars, has accomplished that purpose and now will be returned to the needs of a just and enduring peace. They have been the home, the school, church and theater of the American Expeditionary Forces. They will continue to be all those things, and their school and college students. There is to be no lack of opportunity for the ambitious American to fit himself to occupy a higher plane in social and industrial life than he left to answer the call to the colors.

Mr. James Austin, of Cincinnati, after spending the holidays with relatives here, returned home yesterday. Mr. Austin's many old Maysville friends will be glad to know that he has a very prosperous business in the Queen City.
